RE: Life Saving Efforts CK22015249

Over the past four years the deceased, Robert Thomas Martin has struggled with mental illness, which resulted in several calls for assistance that the aforementioned officers attended in order to render assistance. These interactions included wandering the streets in the cold, unsure of where he lived, going in and out of strangers' vehicles and threats of suicide.

In many of these cases officers would implement crisis de-escalation techniques in order to calm him down, actively listen to him and ultimately get him assessed and admitted in order to receive treatment from health-care professionals. Unfortunately on April, 8th 2022, Robert succumbed to his illness, however the empathetic, compassionate and composed demeanor of the responding officers and Emergency Communications Manager, will remain forever etched in the loving memory of his mother and father.

Your kindness, compassion and professionalism exhibited our core values and further demonstrated a commitment to the safety and protection of our community. As a result, you will receive a Deputy Chief Letter of Recognition.
