INTERNAL-EXTERNAL JOB POSTING #013-2026

- Respond to requests from citizens regarding file destruction. Correspond locally and with RCMP.
- Interpret and respond to requests from citizens regarding their criminal record status.

Essential Qualifications:

- Completion of a 2-year formal post-Secondary program or Community College Diploma/Certificate, or equivalent.
- One (1) year job-related experience
- Experience with computer software, including NICHE Records Management System (RMS), Microsoft (MS) based software including Microsoft Outlook.

Competencies:

Complexity of Decision Making:

- Makes decisions on the accuracy and completeness of court documents based on the defined standards; may identify non-standard conditions and propose appropriate action.

Problem Solving:

- When problems are encountered, reviews policy and procedure to identify the resolution; may be required to adapt existing practices and substitute known alternatives depending on the situation.

Impact of Action:

- Ensures certified documents required for evidence are requested and received in advance of the court proceedings—if required documents are not present this could cause delays in court proceedings.
- Uses organization skills to manage the sealing of files for pardons issued as well as to open files upon revocation, ensuring that all files are managed in compliance with legal requirements—inaccuracies in these records could affect activities based on them (ex. failure to seal a person’s file may result in that person missing out on an opportunity in the future).
- Organizes and prioritizes tasks to ensure that requests are processed efficiently and accurately; providing inaccurate criminal record checks may result in embarrassment in client/customer/public relations for the organization.

Working Relationships:

- Uses courtesy to interact with a variety of contacts (justices, crown prosecutors, police officers, RCMP, National Pardons Board etc.) to present factual information/data to ensure the smooth running of the court.

Leadership:

- Primarily responsible for own time and work but may orient others to established processes and procedures.
- Works independently to complete tasks, though tasks may require the incumbent to coordinate with others (ex. requests for certified documents, RCMP, National Pardons Board, contacting other police agencies to gather information etc.).
